DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 17, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 USC 101 as being directed to non-statutory subject matter because these are method or process claims that do not transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or materials) to a different state or thing, nor are they sufficiently tied to another statutory class (such as a particular machine). See Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981) (quoting Benson, 409 U.S. at 70); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978) (citing Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876)). See also In re Comiskey, 499 F.3d 1365, 1376 (Fed. Cir. 2007) (request for rehearing en banc pending).

3. Claims 2-9 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 2-9 and 13-15 are directed towards a computer-readable medium which may be satisfied by a transitory signal, which does not constitute patent-eligible subject matter. Examiner notes that an amendment of the claim to recite "a non-transitory computer readable medium" would not render the claims allowable, as such amendment would constitute new matter since the specification does not disclose the medium as non-transitory.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 12, 16 and 21 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-9, 12-17 and 19-21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
